THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA’S RESPONSE TO DEREK WILLIS’S MOTION TO TERMINATE SUPERVISED RELEASE

The United States of America, by Cody Hiland, the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Arkansas, and Assistant United States Attorney Cameron C. McCree, for its response to Derek Willis’s motion to terminate supervised release, states that Willis has completed more than 24 months of his 36-month term of supervised release and has shown sufficient progress in meeting supervision objectives. Additionally, while Willis still owes a substantial restitution balance, Willis’s probation officer reports that Willis has been in compliance with his restitution payment schedule and that he has performed well while on supervision. In light of Willis’s good behavior and his efforts to address the issues that led to his indictment, the United States has no objection to the early termination of his supervised release.
